A celebration – with sound effects

To celebrate 10 years of publishing national award-winning books, Trellis Publishing, Inc. announces our new title:

Grandpa, What's That Sound in the Middle of the Night?

Victoria Jamieson's vibrant illustrations animate Naomi Singlehurst's rollicking rhymes. Fearsome and fun characters – a herd of hippos playing ball, a shipload of pirates, dancing monsters, and more – join the imaginary journey of two children. They discover that sound is Grandpa's loud snore!
